

Plan Of Learning For The Year

Half Term 1:

- Ethics: Utilitarianism; Conscience; Meta Ethical Theories
- Development of Christian Thought: Religious Pluralism and Theology

Half Term 2:

- Development of Christian Thought: Religious Pluralism and Society; Gender and Theology
- Ethics: Euthanasia; Business Ethics

Half Term 3:

- Development of Christian Thought: Gender and Society, The Challenge of Secularism
- Ethics: Sexual Ethics

Half Term 4

- Development of Christian Thought: Liberation Theology
- Philosophy: Nature and Attributes of God; Religious Language

Half Term 5

- Revision

Half Term 6

- Exams

Feedback, Retrieval & Assessment	Super curriculum opportunities / extra-curricular activities	Cultural Capital, SMSC, Careers and Futures
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students will be assessed through retrieval tasks, verbal feedback to peers and to the class, independent learning, essays written under timed conditions and mock exams • Some units will involve presentation and debate work which enables students to process and develop their knowledge and understanding of the material 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Students are offered opportunities for extra study through podcasts, online events linked to the university of Sheffield Hallam and essay competitions throughout the year 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Religious Studies benefits our students through enriching their knowledge of the world, their community, our school community and their own spirituality. • Religious Studies is a very transferable subject with links to many career paths including Medicine, Social Work, Policing, Education, Armed Forces, Law, Social Care, Catering • Students who have left All Saints with an A level in RS have gone on to study Drama, Politics, Philosophy, Medicine, Law, Theology to name just a few

Common misconceptions

Connecting New Knowledge

Challenge for all

<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Will I be disadvantaged if I am are not Catholic? No, our intake is very diverse and we ensure this is fully recognised in the way we teach the content. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Is A level RS just for those with a faith? No, RS is for everyone! Learning about what people believe and how it influences their decisions in life is important for all citizens of the world. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Is A level RS just about religion? No, the A level covers Religion, Philosophy and Ethics with plenty of input from religious and secular thinkers and sources	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• RS connects with many other subjects on the curriculum, such as English, History, Business Studies, Psychology and Sociology	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• A level RS is a very challenging and academic subject for students, but is suitable for a variety of abilities
--	--	--